Open Day

In celebration of our 5th anniversary, the Southern Centre is holding an Open Day on Saturday 27 Sept. This open day will give people the opportunity to experience our centre, without committing to a full session. You will be able to interact with the equipment and see what the room has to offer. No bookings are required and best of all it is FREE!!!

New Signage

The next time you visit the Southern Centre I hope you check out our fantastic new signage in reception and leading into our entrance way. Our new signage is designed to make us more visible and make us easier to find here at QEII.

New Software

The Southern Centre has also upgraded its computer software system and introduced some exciting new features into our sessions. Come along and check out our new games / images and music!
